

Feeding the Five Thousand

6 After this Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias.

<sup>2</sup> A large crowd kept following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing for the sick.

<sup>3</sup> Jesus went up the mountain and sat down there with his disciples.

<sup>5</sup> When he looked up and saw a large crowd coming toward him, Jesus said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?"

<sup>6</sup> He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do.

<sup>7</sup> Philip answered him, "Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little."

<sup>9</sup> "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?"

<sup>10</sup> Jesus said, "Make the people sit down." Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all.

<sup>11</sup> Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted.

<sup>13</sup> So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets.

<sup>14</sup> When the people saw the sign that he had done, they began to say, “This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world.” <sup>1</sup>
